

George Orwell's "1984" Opens Friday, October 21st at Greenway Court Theatre

Greenway Arts Alliance presents 1984, Directed by Kate Jopson culminating the launch of their premiere novel-to-stage program Greenway Reads.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, October 17, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Greenway Arts Alliance Presents: George Orwell's 1984, directed by Kate Jopson as the first production of their novel to stage program Greenway Reads. The adaptation by Alan Lyddiard creates an interactive and engaging experience for audience members. Jopson said, "We're trying to create an immersive experience. The elements of the play and its themes are all around us in the real world. We try to emphasize that and as soon as you arrive at the theater there's not anywhere you're not in the set of 1984, even in the lobby and bathrooms."

Greenway's professional production of 1984 launches the premier of GREENWAY READS, a collaboration along with the City of West Hollywood Public Library, Greenway Institute for the Arts, the Melrose Trading Post and Fairfax High School. Fairfax High School students and residents of West Hollywood are included in an all school and community reading of the novel 1984 culminating with a theatrical run of 1984 from October 21st to November 19th. Greenway's multi-disciplinary approach to programming will focus on the novel's themes while bringing it to life on stage and through arts education and special events.

War is Peace, Freedom is Slavery and Ignorance is Strength.”

George Orwell
