

ISHIR is now a part of Business Critical SharePoint (BCSP) Program

ISHIR, today announced that it has been qualified for Microsoft's Business-Critical SharePoint (BCSP) Partner Program.

DALLAS, TX, USA, October 24, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ISHIR, a global diversified outsourcing IT Services Company, today announced that it has been qualified for Microsoft's Business-Critical SharePoint (BCSP) Partner Program.

Launched in 2012, Microsoft's Business-Critical SharePoint (BCSP) Partner Program is focused on expanding the market for developing and delivering solutions by connecting line-of-business (LOB) systems with SharePoint. The program contains leading Microsoft partners globally, both ISVs and SIs, who provide the technology and the business expertise required to help customers leverage SharePoint for advanced work scenarios.

The program will allow ISHIR's SharePoint solutions to focus on two tracks in the fiscal year 2014- PowerBI, and EDiscovery. Also, the program will offer ISHIR a variety of qualification benefits- networking opportunities, marketing collateral benefits, and other technical benefits.

"Being a BCSP partner represents the knowledge, experience and commitment of our team towards the SharePoint platform," said Rishi Khanna, CEO, ISHIR. "Our goal this year is to leverage and assist companies to use these two features (PowerBI, and EDiscovery) within SharePoint 2013 and enhance their adaption of SP within the organization."

Adding further, Mike Collins, Vice President, ISHIR said, "I am very excited for ISHIR to participate in this elite Microsoft Partner program. BCSP will enable us to enhance our solutions for our SharePoint customers and as we are moving towards Practice Leadership initiative, we are going to align ourselves with Microsoft's other partner programs that give us more exposure to the latest within the MS Product."
