The analysts forecast the global traffic lights market to grow at a CAGR of 6.04% during the period 2017-2021.

Traffic lights are an important element of traffic safety management to maintain safety on road for pedestrians and drivers. Increasing accidents and fatalities have driven the growth of the traffic lights market, as traffic lights provide drivers control on road and improve the flow of traffic. Another factor that has driven the growth of the market is the improvement in traffic flow regulations by traffic safety organizations by constantly upgrading and maintaining them and creating various pedestrian facilities, extra street lighting, traffic signal modifications, and signage marking improvements.
