KOLKATA, INDIA, December 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At the beginning of this month, Capital Numbers received recognition in the Dun & Bradstreet premier publication "Leading SMEs of India 2017" in association with RBL Bank.

This listing is meant to recognize outstanding small-to-medium enterprises (SMEs) that not only enjoy success in business but play a significant role in advancing the Indian economy. Because of the high number of SMEs across the country, the sector is uniquely positioned to promote equitable economic growth and reduce regional imbalances.

According to Vishwavir Ahuja, Managing Director & CEO of RBL Bank, "The SME sector plays a crucial role in urbanising rural India and has opened multiple avenues of development for the rural societies in India."

The future for the SME sector looks very bright and we're proud to be a part of it."

Mukul Gupta, Managing Director

Mukul Gupta, Managing Director of Capital Numbers, said that the company was extremely excited to receive recognition under this initiative.

"We're happy to be a part of something that can benefit our workers and our clients, and also our country," he said. "The future for the SME sector looks very bright and we're proud to be a part of it."

The awards will be presented at a future date at a gala event where senior officials from SMEs, government institutions, financial institutions and tech companies will be in attendance.
