

Coworking Space ATLAS Workbase to Provide Auxiliary Workspace for 2018 Special Olympics USA Games in Seattle

Premium shared workplace with best-in-class office and meeting spaces provides place to conduct business for the large contingency of coaches, friends, family

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, April 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ATLAS Workbase, the coworking company aimed at executive class/business users along with traditional users who seek a more professional and flexible shared workspace, today announced it has partnered with 2018 Special Olympics USA Games as a Bronze Medal Sponsor, providing access to its state-of-the-art office and meeting spaces. ATLAS Workbase offers continuity and a place to conduct business for the thousands of Special Olympics delegates, partners, coaches, friends, and family flooding into Seattle for the event July 1-6.

In addition to providing thousands of hours of access to its space at no charge to the delegates attending the 2018 USA Games, ATLAS Workplace will actively help promote the USA Games through its partners and other marketing channels.

“The ATLAS Workbase top-of-the line satellite office and meeting space is like an extension of our own office space. Having this kind of resource where our team, as well as the delegates and visitors who’ll be coming into Seattle for the USA Games, can catch up on work and host partner meetings, is invaluable,” said Beth Knox, 2018 Special Olympics USA Games President and CEO.

The 2018 Special Olympics USA Games is expected to be one of the biggest and most significant sports events in Seattle’s history. 3,000 Special Olympics athletes from all 50 states and the District of Columbia, 1,000 coaches, 10,000 volunteers and an estimated 50,000 spectators will take part in this premier national sports competition. This is a perfect opportunity to showcase the power and joy of sports at the highest levels.

“A pillar of the ATLAS Workbase corporate mission is investing back into the community. Moreover, the 2018 Special Olympics USA Games represent the ultimate embodiment of diversity and inclusion, two ideals which run deep to the core of the company and the spirit that we are building at ATLAS Workbase. We are extremely proud to be a Bronze Sponsor for this year’s games in Seattle,” said Bill Sechter, ATLAS Workbase co-founder and CEO.

About the 2018 Special Olympics USA Games

The 2018 Special Olympics USA Games will be held in Seattle, Washington from July 1-6, 2018. More than 4,000 participants representing all 50 states and the District of Columbia, along with the support of tens of thousands of volunteers and spectators, will compete in 14 Olympic-type team and individual sports. The 2018 Special Olympics USA Games will celebrate the Special Olympics movement and its 50th anniversary; promote the ideals of acceptance and inclusion through sport; and showcase athletes from throughout the U.S. and the abilities of people with intellectual disabilities. The 2018 USA Games will also highlight Special Olympics’ work in sport, education, health and community-building.
