"The Ritz-Carlton Spa, Bali is inspired by century's old Balinese rituals to give our guests a unique and highly memorable spa experience in sublime surrounds. We are both thrilled and honoured to be the recipient of yet another luxury spa award," says General Manager Karim Tayach.

Nestled into the base of the resort's beautiful limestone cliffs The Ritz-Carlton Spa, Bali is a place where all cares can be forgotten, a blissful sanctuary dedicated to renewal and relaxation. Signature treatments draw on the power of the ocean and time-honoured traditional rituals to restore vitality, stimulate the senses and leave guests glowing with inner and outer health. The stunning spa complex includes luxurious private treatment pavilions, Hydro-Vital Pool and secluded Balinese Bathing Pool and Japanese beauty salon.

The Annual World Luxury Spa & Restaurant event celebrates exceptional service in the luxury wellness and fine dining industries and entrants were received from 42 countries for this year's event. This latest illustrious award for The Ritz-Carlton Bali Spa comes just months after winning the Luxury Spa Resort South Asia at the highly coveted World Luxury Hotel Awards held in Switzerland.

The dedicated team of spa therapists will continue to strive to provide an exemplary never-to-be-forgotten experience for guests in the sumptuous surrounds of The Ritz-Carlton Spa, Bali and no doubt more luxury spa awards will follow.
