The influential forces of consumer decision making are rapidly altering the landscape of the consumer goods industry. The age-old adage, 'the consumer is the king' resonates with every trade being executed under the sun. The practice of consumerism is gaining precedence among other factors which are significantly escalating the growth of the consumer goods industry. The adoption of consumer micro-segmentation technique is allowing consumers to precisely address their needs. This is aiding vendors to understand consumer preferences, which help them design effective products and develop the value-based supply chain. Consumer micro-segmentation has generated enormous scope for new product launches, that is amplifying the expansion of all markets concerning consumer goods.
