The principal categories of the dental products market are dental consumables and dental equipment. The largest geographical markets for dental products are in North America, Europe, and followed by the rest of Asia, Latin America, Africa, the Middle East, and Australia. Expansion of the elderly population worldwide and increasing consumer awareness of oral healthcare needs are propelling the expansion of the global dental market.

Among the product segments, dental implants market will have the fastest market growth. Analysis of the Dental Products Market Of particular note is Dentsply's merger with Sirona Dental Systems which closed in late February 2016. The $5.4 billion merger combined Dentsply's market leading dental consumables platform with Sirona's dominant dental technology business. The consolidated company, Dentsply Sirona, will offer the most products and technological solutions within the global dental products market, and is expected to generate more than $125 million in cost-savings synergies over the next three years. It is estimated that demand for dental care treatment will increase significantly in the coming decade. Large demand for treatment, as well as the growing economy, means more care with better services and facilities will be needed,
