

Leader Of Kenya Peace Center Receives International World Civility Award

Leader Of Kenya Peace Center Received the prestigious World Civility Award, for the work that is being done by the International Peace Support training centre

KAREN, KENYA, November 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- in Karen Kenya the Leader Of Kenya Peace Center Received the prestigious International World Civility Award, for the work that is being done by the International Peace Support training centre. The work is heroic in the respect that they are aiding several countries in the world to the process of peace. They have training programs on all levels, such as prevention, intervention and integration after conflict have taken place. This peace training centre has done so much good under the leadership of Brigadier. Rashid A. Elmi to bring a true understanding of how to make peace lasting and to take peace in the world. I have personally seen the excellence of the peace training centre in Karen, Kenya. It's truly a world class operation for civility.
