I look forward to discussing tips and traps that attorneys may experience when handling and presenting confidential information electronically in court."

Attorney Brian J. Lamoureux

Attorney Lamoureux's presentation on "Keeping Personal Information Secure in the Digital Age" is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 15 from 9 a.m. to 9:50 a.m. In this age of cyberthreats and ransomware, attorneys are ripe targets for criminals because attorneys routinely hold confidential and valuable information such as financial records, banking records, and health related information. Attorney

Lamoureux will discuss best practices for attorneys to follow when handling and presenting confidential information, such as medical records and other electronic documents, in workers' compensation cases. He will also address the need for workers' compensation attorneys to ensure that they have adequate office controls in place to prevent clients' confidential electronic health information from being hacked by cyber criminals.

"I am pleased to once again present to workers' compensation attorneys and professionals and look forward to discussing tips and traps that attorneys may experience when handling and presenting confidential information electronically in court," said Attorney Lamoureux. "Attendees will learn the current dangers that attorneys face as targets of cyberthreats and cyber-extortion and ways to minimize these highly consequential risks."

Attorney Lamoureux is a member of PLDO's Employment, Litigation, Cyber Law, and Corporate & Business Teams. His extensive practice areas include complex commercial litigation, employment law, construction law, social media law, and creditors' rights. In addition to being an accomplished business litigator, he is a frequent guest speaker, published author and broadcast commentator on cybersecurity and social and digital media legal issues in the news, having made appearances on WPRI-TV, WJAR-TV, WPRO-AM, MYRI-TV, and NECN-TV. He also created and teaches an MBA-level course called "Digital and Social Media in the Business Environment" at his alma mater, Providence College, where he is also a Practitioner Faculty member. In 2011, he was
