

Divorce Lawyer Selection Made Easy with Divorce Protector's New E-book.

The new e-book Divorce Protector teaches how to use technology, research and payment options to interview, hire and pay the best divorce lawyer for your needs.

OAK ISLAND, NORTH CAROLINA, USA, November 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Divorce Protector's new e-book written by ex-husbands for husbands teaches men how to use computer resources to research and select the best divorce lawyer in the area. "Most people ask friends and family the name of a divorce lawyer to hire. That is about the worst advice a man can get. Your lawyer must be your partner, personalities and trial experience are critical," said the author Thaddeus Thorn. The Divorce Protector e-book shows men how to research experience levels, what interview questions to ask as well as other characteristics that may be required. The e-book will suggest alternative payment arrangements that are affordable for you and yet fair for the divorce lawyer.

How to hire a lawyer

If you have to choose a divorce lawyer proper selection will be the most important choice you make. Since these are contract services, you are not bound by employment restrictions. You are completely free to choose the desired characteristics and skill sets you need. Lawyers, just like any other skilled service provider, are not all equal. The talent varies widely in quality and no matter how thorough you have been using the techniques that Divorce Protector teaches, unprepared, unskilled or inexperienced lawyers can wreck your efforts and destroy your life. The new e-book shows
