

CLE Companion Becomes the First Continuing Legal Education Solution in Reynen Court's Legal Technology Marketplace

CLE Companion, a fully accredited and virtual continuing legal education provider, announced today that it has partnered with Reynen Court.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, US, August 20, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CLE Companion, a fully accredited and virtual continuing legal education provider, announced today that it has partnered with Reynen Court, making its platform available to attorneys and law firms through the Reynen Court Solution Store. CLE Companion was welcomed into the Reynen Court ecosystem because of its proven track record for delivering cutting-edge CLE courses to law firms at an attractive price point.

"This partnership supports our mission of bringing positive changes to the CLE industry, which for too long has been a very expensive proposition for attorneys and their law firms," said Kristin Davidson, the CEO and founder. "With the robust new technologies at our disposal today, there is no reason attorneys and firms should pay between $500 and $1,000 a year to maintain their law license. By using CLE Companion through Reynen Court, that requirement can be completed in an entirely virtual format for a small fraction of the cost."

Davidson pointed out that Reynen Court and CLE Companion's other partners recognize that the pandemic has severely impacted the ability of attorneys to travel to a conference or seminar to complete CLE. In response, these visionary partners are providing significantly discounted CLE courses to their customers.

"We welcome CLE Companion into our ecosystem," said Christian Lang, Reynen Court's Head of Strategy. "At its core, Reynen Court is about putting the right tools in the right lawyers' hands at the right time—with just a few clicks. Beginning with CLE Companion, we're excited to extend that vision to embrace educational tools that help lawyers stay current and meet professional obligations flexibly and frictionlessly. We look forward to helping CLE Companion deliver compelling content to attorneys nationwide and reshape how CLE is consumed by the legal community."

Kristin Davidson

Davidson added that she was proud to have the first CLE solution on the Reynen Court platform, which combines a solution store for legal technology, along with a powerful control panel to make it easy for law firms and legal departments to run cloud-based applications, either on-premise or within virtual private clouds. This enables law firms to access modern cloud-based solutions without sacrificing security or stability.

We look forward to helping CLE Companion deliver compelling content to attorneys nationwide and reshape how CLE is consumed by the legal community."
