TYSONS, VIRGINIA, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MicroTech, a provider of Communications, Technology, and Professional Services, Cyber Security and Network Systems and Services to Federal, State and Local Government Agencies, and public sector throughout North America, announced today that it has received six task order awards under the General Services Administration's (GSA) $50 billion Enterprise Infrastructure Solutions (EIS) contract.

The awards include orders for a range of Internet, voice, VoIP, conferencing, data, VPN, and managed network services from the Department of Defense (DoD) and Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) to support Army, Air Force, and Navy installations and agencies.

"We're honored to have earned DOD and DISA's trust as a best of breed small business, particularly when the pandemic has made cost-effective communications and network infrastructure more critical than ever," said MicroTech's Chief Executive Officer Tony Jimenez. "We look forward to broadening our strong relationship with the DoD and to forging new bonds with DISA as well as the Army, Air Force, and Navy."

The EIS contract is the main component of GSA's telecommunications portfolio. It's replacing GSA's current Network Universal and Enterprise contracts as well as more than 100 GSA Regional Local Service Agreements for government telecommunications and infrastructure solutions.
