In its ninth consecutive year, DreamWeek celebrates the unveiling of the Notable People of San Antonio 2020 collection titled "A Collective Vision" by portrait artist Kevin G. Saunders, honoring civic, cultural, business, religious, and political leaders of our city. The black and white fine art portrait exhibit was created by Saunders without compensation and in collaboration with DreamVoice President, Shokare Nakpodia.

This is the impetus of the vision that guided portrait artist Kevin G. Saunders to focus his talents over the past year of inviting the collective of San Antonio notables for a portrait session that would lead to sharing their striking images and personas as an inspiration for all through his unique, artistic gift. Now it will be available to enjoy both in-person and online.

"This is a signature, milestone event from my long career that I am proud to share with all of our community and beyond. San Antonio's 2020 Notable People are simply inspiring. I hope everyone enjoys the beauty of their spirits," said Kevin G. Saunders.
