

Reviva Labs debuts its Multi-Factor Brightening Creme

Reviva's Multi-Factor Brightening Crème will help deliver brighter-looking skin and a visibly smoother complexion.

EINPresswire.com/ -- The introduction of Reviva's Multi-Factor Brightening Crème expands the skin brightening options for its skin care consumers. Reviva Labs pioneered natural ingredient based brightening decades ago. This newest brightener offers a quadruple dose of robust brightening to deliver brighter, more radiant skin, and visibly smoother complexions.

Reviva's Multi-Factor Brightening Crème features four potent, proven brighteners: Azelaic Acid, Tranexamic Acid, Niacinamide, and Kojic Acid. Azelaic Acid is an exfoliant with anti-inflammatory properties that also helps to brighten skin discoloration while it improves blemishes and reduces comedones. Tranexamic Acid, another skin brightening powerhouse, is said to be on par with hydroquinone without its issues. It helps fade discoloration, brighten skin, and reduces the appearance of acne scars. The addition of Niacinamide (Vitamin B3), a powerful antioxidant, helps to brighten uneven skin tone and reduces sebum and oil production. Finally, Kojic Acid, a long-established skin brightening ingredient, completes this formula's ability to improve uneven skin tone and fade dark spots for and overall brighter and smoother looking complexion.

The combination of these four ingredients offers time-tested skin brightening effects with a plethora of additional skin benefits”
