

New Product Launches Are Shaping The Nephrology And Urology Devices Market

The Business Research Company's Nephrology And Urology Devices Global Market Report 2021 - COVID-19 Impact And Recovery

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, October 13, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The nephrology and urology market is witnessing rise in new product launches. Due to the high competition in the market, many companies are investing in advanced technologies to widen product portfolio and increase their share in the market.

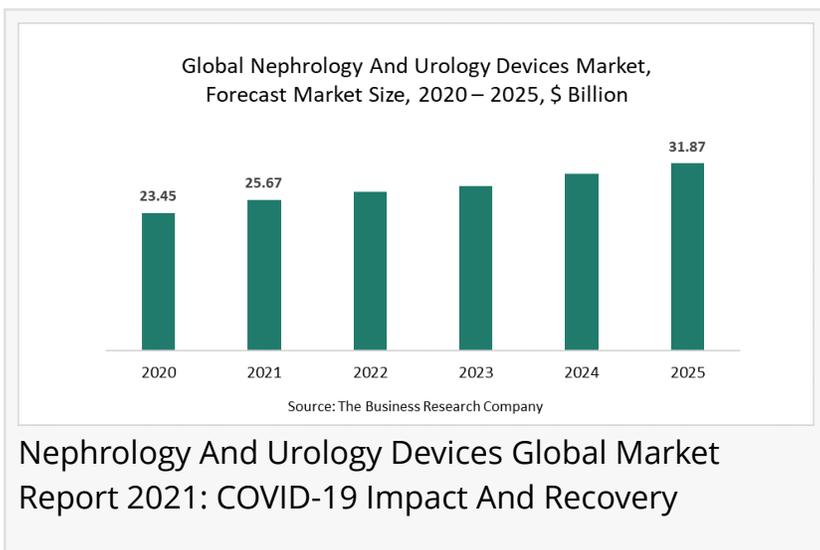

For instance, in March 2020, Medi-Tate an Israel based medical device company has received authorization for iTind system that is used to implant and remove nitinol device during bladder neck remodeling. Researchers at Washington University in St. Louis, the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and Northwestern University together developed a wireless implant to control overactive bladders using LED lights.

North America was the largest region in the global nephrology and urology devices market, accounting for 35% of the market in 2020. Asia Pacific was the second largest region, accounting for 33% of the global nephrology and urology devices market. Eastern Europe was the smallest region in the global nephrology and urology devices market.
