Brief Synopsis and Purpose of the Book:

Dr. Shams' "What Women want in their Soulmate" is a definitive and concise self-help book for the potential Grooms/ Partners to understand the qualities that women seek in their life partners.

As we move on to the 21st century, there are many reasons that make it quite evident that women are no less efficient as a work force or as homemakers. There is a greater understanding in people of today, than it was 50 to 100 years ago. Just as men look for certain qualities in women taking them into consideration to have a relationship as a life partner, women of today who hold a great understanding and supreme knowledge, have reached a status where they are in the constant look out for a set of virtues in the opposite sex. Men need to establish a platonic relationship with the woman they marry. For this a deeper understanding about the various kinds of personalities is crucial.
