

After Massive Stroke, Crime Fiction Author completes latest Novel in Series

Author has also adapted his 8 book crime Series to a One-hour Tv Series.

USA, January 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After suffering a massive stroke, renowned crime fiction author, Jed Power, overcame his paralysis and wrote the eighth book in the acclaimed Dan Marlowe/Hampton Beach, NH, Crime/Mystery series. At the same time, Power completed a proposed TV Series Bible (explaining the proposal) and a Pilot episode adapting his series to a one-hour TV Series or feature film. He is now looking for a Manager, Agent or producer to help with the project. Bible and/or Pilot are available on request.

Power admits that writing after a stroke had major obstacles. "Typing with one finger was the least of it," Power said. He continued, "It brought me confidence, just getting it done. In my eyes anyhow, it was an accomplishment."
