

InVision Communications Ranks Among Highest-Scoring Businesses on Inc. Magazine's Annual List of Best Workplaces 2022

WALNUT CREEK, CA, UNITED STATES, May 10, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- InVision Communications has been named to Inc. magazine's annual Best Workplaces list. Featured in the May/June 2022 issue, hitting newsstands on May 17, 2022, and prominently featured on Inc.com, the list is the result of a comprehensive measurement of American companies that have excelled in creating exceptional workplaces and company culture, whether operating in a physical or virtual facility.

After collecting data from over 3,000 submissions, Inc. selected 475 honorees this year, comprising the top 15% of brands surveyed. Each company that was nominated took part in an employee survey, conducted by Quantum Workplace, which included topics such as management effectiveness, perks, fostering employee growth, and overall company culture. The organization's benefits were also audited to determine overall score and ranking.

"From day one, Rod Mickels, CEO, and I built this agency with a focus on our people," says InVision Co-founder and Chief Culture Officer Drew Hagen. "Our employees are the heartbeat of this company; and together we have built a great company and culture. It's what drives us to be our best at home, at work and in the communities we live. Our collective spirit helps us achieve amazing results for our partner clients, and we share quite a few laughs along the way. We live and breathe our internal motto in everything we do, Be Great. Do Good. Have Fun."

"Not long ago, the term 'best workplace' would have conjured up images of open-office designs with stocked snack fridges," says Inc. editor-in-chief Scott Omelianuk. "Yet given the widespread adoption of remote work, the concept of the workplace has shifted. This year, Inc. has recognized the organizations dedicated to redefining and enriching the workplace in the face of the pandemic.”
