

Blended Perspectives Named Appfire Red Hot Partner (2021)

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 12, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Blended Perspectives, a leading North American Atlassian Platinum Solutions Partner, providing unique offerings including Synthesis™ Solution Blueprints and MARS™ analytical insights into the Atlassian Marketplace, has been named as a Red Hot Partner for 2021 by Appfire, a leading provider of Atlassian apps built to solve big problems.

The Red Hot Partner award recognizes an elite group of solution partners in the Atlassian ecosystem with strong year-over-year growth and outstanding sales volumes of Appfire's portfolio of apps.

We excel in helping our customers leverage their Atlassian products to the fullest extent possible and Appfire's portfolio of apps are a key tool for our success in this regard.”

Miles Faulkner

"Blended Perspectives is delighted to receive the Red Hot Partner award from Appfire," said Blended Perspectives CEO Miles Faulkner. "We excel in helping our customers leverage their Atlassian products to the fullest extent possible and Appfire's portfolio of apps are a key tool for our success in this regard."

On Blended Perspectives' success, Appfire Co-Founder and CEO Randall Ward said: "We're thrilled to recognize the amazing team at Blended Perspectives as an Appfire 2021 Red Hot Partner. Our continued partnership with Blended Perspectives, and their team's proven track record of expertise when representing Appfire's product solutions for our joint customers, is invaluable."
