Heidmar represents a compelling opportunity for investors seeking exposure to the maritime transportation sector. We will showcase this established maritime leader to a broader investor audience.”

David Shapiro, CEO of B2i Digital, Inc.

"Heidmar represents a compelling opportunity for investors seeking exposure to the maritime transportation sector," said David Shapiro, CEO of B2i Digital. "With over 40 years of proven experience, a fleet of 51 vessels under management, and their innovative eFleetWatch platform, Heidmar demonstrates the kind of operational excellence and technological innovation that creates lasting value. We look forward to showcasing this established maritime leader to a broader investor audience."

"Our partnership with B2i Digital reflects our commitment to building stronger relationships with the investment community as we continue to expand our platform," said

Pankaj Khanna, CEO of Heidmar Maritime Holdings Corp. "Having recently completed our public listing and celebrated our 40th anniversary, we are focused on leveraging our decades of experience and industry relationships to deliver value for shareholders while serving our clients with the highest standards of safety and transparency."

Heidmar operates one of the maritime industry's most comprehensive commercial management platforms, with a managed fleet spanning VLCCs, Suezmax, Aframax/LR2, and MR class vessels. The company serves the global crude oil and refined petroleum product markets through strategically located offices in Athens, London, Singapore, Chennai, Hong Kong, and Dubai, with planned expansion into Houston. Heidmar's proprietary eFleetWatch digital platform provides real-time vessel tracking and management capabilities, offering both internal teams and external stakeholders transparent access to operational data.

Under CEO Pankaj Khanna's leadership since 2019, Heidmar has experienced substantial growth, expanding from seven vessels to 51 vessels under management and 4 tankers under technical management. The company recently completed a successful business combination with MGO Global, leading to its February 2025 listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the ticker "HMR."
