GlobeScribe and Book Brush Announce Strategic Affiliate Partnership

This relationship is a great fit, as we both share a commitment to helping authors succeed. Our goal is to make the process of expanding into new markets as simple and affordable as possible.”

GlobeScribe.*

"This relationship is a great fit, as we both share a commitment to helping authors succeed," said Fred Freeman, co-founder at GlobeScribe. "Our goal is to make the process of expanding into new markets as simple and affordable as possible, and this partnership with Book Brush will allow us to reach a community of authors who are already invested in professional book marketing."

As part of the partnership, GlobeScribe has created a dedicated co-branded page on its website, prominently featuring both the Book Brush and GlobeScribe logos. This page will serve as a resource for Book Brush users seeking high-quality translation services to make their books accessible to a wider, international audience.

"Book Brush is dedicated to providing authors with the best tools to promote their work," said Josh Wiley, CEO and Founder at Book Brush. "Our partnership with GlobeScribe offers our users a fantastic opportunity to take their marketing efforts to the next level by reaching readers around the globe. We believe this will be a valuable resource for our community, and we are excited to see the impact of this collaboration."

Any customer referred to GlobeScribe through the co-branded page will receive an exclusive 10% lifetime discount on all GlobeScribe translation orders. This special offer is designed to provide authors and publishers with an immediate and long-term benefit for their translation needs.
