

Valley Burial & Cremation Celebrates 40 Years of Compassionate Service to Puyallup Families

Valley Burial & Cremation marks a significant milestone as it continues the legacy of personal care in funeral services.

PUYALLUP, WA, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the heart of Puyallup, at 217 Pioneer Way E, the atmosphere is imbued with memories, compassion, and a dedication to community. Valley Burial & Cremation is excited to announce a new chapter in its ongoing legacy as it celebrates over four decades of providing compassionate funeral and cremation services to families in Pierce

County and surrounding regions. As the owner, Brian Curnow, a seasoned veteran in the funeral business, takes the reins with a refreshed commitment to quality and affordability, this milestone is more than just a number; it represents a continuing promise to honor life's fleeting moments with dignity.

Our mission at Valley Burial & Cremation is to provide not only the best funeral home service in Puyallup but also a compassionate experience tailored to each family's needs.”

Brian Curnow

As Brian reflects on the past four decades, he understands that the needs of families have evolved, especially with a growing emphasis on personalized and affordable solutions. The rising cost of funeral services has become a significant concern for many families, making it essential for providers to offer transparent pricing and diverse service options. This realization inspired Brian to launch Valley Burial & Cremation, ensuring that affordability does not compromise the quality of care—a necessity in today's market.

With over 150 years of combined experience among its staff, Valley Burial & Cremation stands at the forefront of the funeral industry in Puyallup, Sumner, and beyond, including areas like North Puyallup, Summit, Alderton, Bonney Lake, and Edgewood. The team operates their crematory on-site, providing peace of mind that services are performed locally and with respect. Families can make arrangements in their time of need or plan ahead with comprehensive pre-planning programs designed with care and thoughtfulness.

"Our mission at Valley Burial & Cremation is to provide not only the best funeral home service in Puyallup but also a compassionate experience tailored to each family's needs," said Brian Curnow. "Having served this community for so long, I am keenly aware of the challenges families face. This milestone is not about looking back; it's about moving forward with a focus on innovative services, personalized care, and supporting our community through every step of the healing process."

The services offered at Valley Burial & Cremation are meticulously structured to cater to diverse preferences, including direct cremations, immediate burials, and comprehensive memorial ceremonies. Their price list, effective July 15, 2025, provides clear information about costs associated with various services, ensuring transparency and trust. This commitment to affordability manifests in packages designed to alleviate the financial burden while honoring life's moments. Direct Cremation options starting at $870.00, providing a dignified choice without ceremony and funeral services with viewing priced at $2,595.00, including comprehensive support from experienced professionals. A focus on pre-planning packages facilitates peace of mind for the future.

Beyond funeral services, Brian's vision includes engaging the local community. Valley Burial & Cremation is more than a service provider; it is a community partner. Through partnerships with local organizations and active participation in communal events, Brian hopes to foster deeper relationships and trust within Puyallup and its surrounding regions.

Looking ahead, Valley Burial & Cremation is not just a business; it's a commitment to uphold the values of care, respect, and affordability in end-of-life services. Families facing the loss of a loved one are encouraged to reach out, whether for immediate assistance or to pre-plan their arrangements.
