2025 Honorees

Faith E. Gay – Recipient of the Robert M. Kaufman Award

Faith Gay, co-founder of Selendy Gay PLLC, is recognized as one of the nation's most accomplished trial lawyers and a fierce advocate for integrity, equality, and access to justice.

Andrew G. Celli, Jr. – Recipient of the Robert M. Kaufman Award

A founding partner at Emery Celli Brinckerhoff Abady Ward & Maazel LLP, His work defending civil rights, government integrity, and social justice reflects the very spirit of the Fund for Modern Courts' mission.

Matthew Diller – Recipient of Fern Schair Public Service Award

As Dean Emeritus of Fordham Law School, Matthew Diller has dedicated his career to ensuring that future generations of lawyers serve the public good. He has strengthened the bridge between legal education and equal justice for all.

About the Fund for Modern Courts

Modern Courts works to strengthen the rule of law and promote a court system that serves every New Yorker with fairness, transparency, and integrity. We believe justice must be independent, accessible, and grounded in public trust.
