Have you ever heard about the Maze Rooms? It's an amazing place!"

Ellen DeGeneres

Maze Rooms has been recognized as one of the leading escape room providers in the region and has previously been highlighted by national television host Ellen DeGeneres, who stated, "Have you ever heard about the Maze Rooms? It's an amazing place!" This recognition continues to attract attention to the company's approach to thematic design and puzzle-based storytelling.

New and Updated Experiences

The latest lineup includes a variety of themed escape rooms designed for participants seeking narrative-driven, puzzle-focused entertainment. Each experience features original sets, cinematic environments, and challenges created for groups of two to eight participants. All games are offered as private sessions to ensure an uninterrupted experience.

The company operates multiple locations throughout Los Angeles, including sites on Playa Del Rey, Highland Ave, Robertson Blvd, Santa Monica Blvd, Sepulveda Blvd, and Vermont Ave. The updated portfolio includes genres such as fantasy, mystery, steampunk, adventure, and suspense.

Event Hosting and Corporate Programs

Maze Rooms continues to expand its private-event offerings. The venues provide designated lounge areas, Wi-Fi access, and optional space for catering setups. The company reports consistent interest from organizations seeking interactive team-building sessions, with groups reserving single rooms or booking entire facilities for half-day or full-day events.

A Maze Rooms spokesperson commented: "Many organizations are looking for collaborative experiences that strengthen communication and problem-solving. Escape rooms provide a structured environment where teams work toward a shared objective, and this has contributed to significant growth in corporate bookings."

The company also coordinates custom escape-room experiences for celebrations, including birthdays, engagements, and other private occasions.
