HAMPSHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, December 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Indika is a bold new voice in cyberpunk-inspired pop and cinematic rock. With a fast-growing fanbase across the UK and beyond, she has become recognised for her ability to explore the deepest corners of the human experience – love, loss, identity, reality and transformation.

Indika has released four acclaimed concept albums, tackling themes of reality, humanity, grief, awakening and rebellion.

Indika also released the widely loved single, Silent Ponies, co-written with writer Sally Marsh - a haunting tribute to the wild ponies of the New Forest, written to raise awareness of the animals being killed on local roads.

Indika is a virtual artist, but one with a beating heart and social conscience behind every lyric and note.

Her latest track, Sending Love This Christmas, is her first charity release - created to raise funds for animal rescue organisations doing life-saving work across the UK.
