to guiding investors through a smooth immigration journey to the United States. Each milestone reinforces LCR's focus on offering secure, transparent investments that drive both investor success and US economic growth."

Thompson Palm Springs is a 168-room luxury boutique hotel by Hyatt, totaling 119,425 square feet in downtown Palm Springs, California. A full-service resort that opened in May 2024, it features 36,800 square feet of upscale retail and dining space, an award-winning restaurant, and high-end amenities. The project, developed in collaboration with HALL Group, represents yet another successful partnership between the two firms.

Suresh Rajan, Executive Chairman and Founder of LCR Capital Partners, added: "The I-526 approvals are an exciting validation of the Thompson Palm Springs project and our continued partnership with HALL Group. The milestone reflects our shared commitment to delivering strong immigration outcomes for investors while maintaining rigorous financial and operational oversight."

With this milestone, LCR Capital Partners continues to solidify its leading position as an EB-5 regional center and fund manager by offering a diverse portfolio of projects that balance security, compliance, and opportunity for immigrant investors worldwide. The firm has worked with over 1,200 clients from more than 50 countries and has a successful track record of clients who have already received their permanent green cards and the return of their invested capital.

About the EB-5 Investor Program

The EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program is a US federal program that allows qualified investors and their immediate family members to obtain permanent residency visas (green cards) by investing in a project approved by the US government that creates new American jobs.
