AWAJI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE, JAPAN, December 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- □The attraction "NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-Zato" at the anime park Nijigen no Mori, located on Awaji Island in Hyogo Prefecture, will hold the 26th installment of its special mission series, "Icha Icha Tactics Search," for a limited period from Saturday, December 20, 2025, to Sunday, June 28, 2026.

□This installment introduces a puzzle-solving experience based on newly created side stories and characters from the Naruto series.

□In this special mission, the characters Hatake Kakashi and Might Guy serve as the central figures. Participants will engage in a puzzle-solving experience set throughout the "NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-Zato" area, based on an original story depicting previously unknown episodes from their daily lives.

□This storyline focuses on Hatake Kakashi and Might Guy, known as long-time rivals within the Hidden Leaf Village.

One afternoon, Guy challenges Kakashi to a duel as he routinely does, but notices an unusual change in Kakashi's behavior. It is revealed that Kakashi has misplaced his favorite book, "Icha Icha Tactics."

□Guy proposes that they begin searching together, stating that a competition should not take place unless both participants are fully prepared. The two set out to follow the remaining clues, encountering runaway monkeys and various locations within Shinobi-Zato as they proceed. The outcome of their search remains to be seen.

□This mission features an original storyline depicting previously unrevealed aspects of the daily lives of the two instructors. Participants who complete the mission will receive one of two original keychains (Kakashi or Guy), distributed at random. The puzzle-solving experience and story content are available exclusively at "NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-Zato."
