

Minnesota Prep Academy Lands Promising 16-Year-Old Player from Canada Already Making a Name for Himself

Tito Onyemachi (Class of 2028) is eager to work with a coaching staff that has built a reputation for developing high level basketball talent

ST PAUL , MN, UNITED STATES,
December 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/
-- Minnesota Prep Academy, (MPA) one of the nation's premier prep development basketball programs announced today highly coveted prospect, Tito Onyemachi has joined the team. Onyemachi, who stands 6'7", is a power forward from Canada, who at age 16 is already drawing interest from some of the best college programs in the country.

"There is no bigger complement to our program when a player like Tito Onyemachi wants to come play for our program," said Quincy Caldwell, MPA's President of Basketball Operations and Head Coach. "We are excited that he chose to join us and wants to put in the work to get better every day."

I was drawn to the program by the coach and the ability to become a better basketball player. Their track record speaks for itself when it comes to developing talent”

Last season, Onyemachi averaged 21 points per game, along with five rebounds, three assists and two steals. His aggressive style of play has turned heads both in his native Canada and across the globe. He will play his first game for MPA when the squad travels to Ohio this weekend.

"I am very excited to come to Minnesota and join MPA," said Onyemachi. "I was drawn to the program by the coach and the ability to become a better basketball player. Their track record speaks for itself when it comes to developing talent.”

Coach Caldwell’s “Q “personal training business helped develop two first round NBA draft choices from Minnesota; Jalen Suggs, (5th overall to Orlando in 2021) and NBA Champion Chet Holmgren (2nd overall to Oklahoma City in 2022.)

Since its inception, the Academy has helped 106 student athletes receive college basketball scholarships. This year alone, 24 former Academy athletes will be playing college basketball at college programs like Auburn, Memphis and Kansas State, just to name a few.
