

ZuzuDrive Adds New USB Flash Drives To Product Line and Updates Website

/EINPresswire.com/ ZuzuDrive, the international USB flash drive company, announced today that the company has updated their website and has added new products to their line of custom USB flash drives.

ZuzuDrive, the international USB flash drive company, announced today that they have added several new products to their line of custom USB flash drives. A spokesman at ZuzuDrive added that the company has also made a number of significant updates to their website, ZuzuDrive.com. A branding leader in the industry, ZuzuDrive offers the most convenient, affordable and reliable way for anyone to customize USB flash drives. Their personalized flash drives combine form, function and style and are designed specifically for every customer they serve.

"We're excited about the updates to our website as well as the new flash drives we've added to our product line. These steps will help us to continue to be an international USB branding leader, representing and providing our services to all six continents," said ZuzuDrive CEO Jim Pappas.

Visitors to the ZuzuDrive website will now more find unique, dual function USB options such as paper clip USB drives, bottle opener USB drives, USB pens, and stylus USB drives. Each of the new ZuzuDrive flash drives represent convenience at its best.

"We pride ourselves on quality, creativity and innovation, all of which went into our new products," said Pappas in commenting on the new ZuzuDrives. "The custom stylus USB drive will give your fingers a well-deserved break as it is useable on any touch screen phone, tablet or computer." While perhaps a bit of a stretch, Pappas tried to hold back a smile in adding, "The custom pen USB model is guaranteed to increase your IQ or at least make you look smarter while using it." The Paper Clip drive is a cap-less clip that is water resistant, and coffee-spill resistant and is a practical solution to everyday business needs. The new, multipurpose Thirsty USB drive doubles as a bottle opener and is by far the best way to combine data storage and refreshment into one handy, though perhaps unlikely tool. it.

The new line of flash drives and website updates are just two more reasons why ZuzuDrive is an industry leader in branding, innovation, and customer service. Their website, ZuzuDrive.com, is a sophisticated online shop that allows for a fast, easy and secure checkout. Client logos and pre-load data can all be uploaded and stored in convenient, user-friendly online ZuzuDrive accounts.

Customer satisfaction is the top priority at ZuzuDrive as evidenced by their A- rating from the BBB. "We are dedicated to giving each and every client convenient, affordable and reliable ways to customize their USB drive needs while promoting and enhancing the brand of the business or organization," said Pappas. He also added, "We take great pleasure in our program that offers 5% discounts to non-profit and school organizations. We understand how hard it can be to keep up with technology, especially for today's youth. We are happy to help because there's nothing better than promoting your organization with branded flash drives while also being able to provide and store info on them."
