MBI Leasing, has been one of the Industry's premier BRM Leasing and Service companies since 2004. The Company is an independent privately-owned company that leases and services blast resistant buildings throughout North America. Whatever a customer's BRM needs may be, Hallwood Modular are there to make sure customers are satisfied. As a customer oriented company, we help decide what the best solution is for that particular situation.

Hallwood Modular began wiith a focus mainly on fire, wind, and blast resistant buildings. They have realized that over the years the different protection levels they have aquired for the different industries they service are becoming increasingly common with all of their customers in all industries. Today, Hallwood Modular is able to provide protection from any or all of these threats, and are able to do it in every application they provide.
