Can the Chiefs win their third consecutive title? The squad comes in to the season with a golden opportunity to be the first team to win three straight championships in a row since the Crusaders, when they came away with a 20-19 victory over the Brumbies in the 2000 Final.

In total there are two games on the schedule for this weekend, and two of the teams in action on Saturday could potentially challenge the Chiefs for the championship title this season. The Bulls, finished 2013 among the top four teams in the league, and came within one game of advancing to the Super Rugby final, when they lost to the Brumbies 26-23 in the Semi-Finals.

On paper the Sharks, are arguably the most talented team coming in to the tournament and features a talented Springbok front-row in the Du Plessis brothers and Tendai Mtawarira. The Sharks, will be looking to bounce back after a disappointing 2013 season, in which they failed to make it to the playoffs. Last season the Cheetahs, made it to the postseason as a wild card, and were one of six teams to qualify for the playoffs, but came up short to the Brumbies in a 16-13 loss in the Qualifying Finals.
