

U.S. & WORLDWIDE BANKNOTES, SCRIPOPHILY & SECURITY PRINTING EPHEMERA AT PUBLIC AUCTION TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd, 2016

The auction will be held by Archives International Auctions and feature hundreds of rare and desirable banknotes, Security Printing Ephemera and Scripophily

FORT LEE, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, February 16, 2016
/EINPresswire.com/ -- More than 1,350 lots of U.S. & worldwide banknotes, scripophily (stock and bond certificates) and security printing ephemera will be sold at a two-session public auction on Tuesday, February 23rd, by Archives International Auctions, in the firm's offices at 1580 Lemoine Avenue in Fort Lee, N.J. The first session will begin at 10:30 a.m. Eastern time.

"We are looking forward to another exciting auction and will be offering numerous banknote rarities, including a new find of early Mexican banknotes discovered in an old estate that have never before been offered at auction," said Dr. Robert Schwartz, the president of Archives International Auctions. "We anticipate an amazing series of auctions for 2016 with our seventh offering in April of rare Chinese and Russian banknotes destined to be a blockbuster sale."

Session I on February 23rd, consists of 899 lots overall and will kick off with 370 lots of worldwide banknotes, followed by 529 lots of ephemera, autographs, scripophily, security printing ephemera and U.S. banknotes. For those unable to attend in person, online bidding will be offered via the Archives International Auctions website: WWW.ARCHIVESINTERNATIONAL.COM. Phone and absentee bids will also be accepted.

The second session is slated to begin no earlier than 4 p.m. on February 23rd following the first

High grade rarity, Banco Minero Chihuahuense, 1880 Issue Banknote from Mexico

California and Pennsylvania. 71st Pennsylvania (California Regiment) of General Burns Brigade. 25 cents, Issued Sutler scrip note signed by Charles Gallagher, Sutler, Keller OA-SF025, Black on light green underprint with red denomination counters, Native session and will feature 474 additional lots of U.S. & Worldwide Banknotes, Scripophily and Security Printing Ephemera, with live internet bidding only and no printed catalog (but all items will be pictured online). Offered will be 158 lots of worldwide banknotes, including selections from the Arthur Matz collection of modern banknotes, plus rare banknotes from numerous consignors.

Some of the many highlights from the first banknote session will include a Chile, Province of Valdivia Treasury and Customs, 1840s rarity; two unique Bank of Jamaica unadopted essay designs by Harrison & Sons, circa 1990s; an exceptional 1889 Proof from the Banco Espanol De Puerto Rico; and a 1944 Victory Issue banknote from the Philippines, in the rare $500 denomination.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, ND (1889), 20 Pesos, P-10p, Unlisted Proof, Series A, S/N 00000, Black on orange and yellow underprint, Paschal lamb on left, dock workers moving crate on top right, back orange-brown with arms in middle, POC's, The face is PMG grad

Mexico is represented by 18 amazing early Banco period notes, including three rare 1880s scrip notes from Casa De Becerra Hermanos, Urique, Mexico; a Banco Espanol de Puerto Rico, circa 1889-1890 20 Pesos proof banknote rarity; and desirable single and group lot banknotes.

“

We are looking forward to another exciting auction and will be offering numerous banknote rarities, including a new find of early Mexican banknotes discovered in an old estate

*Dr. Robert Schwartz,
President of AIA*

The banknote section will be followed by autographs, including five lots of Francis Spinner autographed letters, checks and documents; and a signed Buffalo & State Line Railroad stock certificate signed by Daniel Drew. Scripophily will feature 199 lots of automobile, aviation, banking, finance, Confederate, mining, railroads, and rarities from the John E. Herzog collection.

Also included will be selections from a recent find of historic security printer advertising cards, some never seen before, including early predecessors to the American Bank Note

Company. Most are circa 1830s-1850's and extremely rare, if not unique. Also sold will be U.S. colonial, obsolete, Confederate and fractional notes, plus small and large type notes, all highly collectible.

The first session will end with a group of five different U.S. Liberty Loans, including a Liberty Loan bond of 1917, plus other desirable bonds. Previews will be held Wednesday thru Friday, Feb. 17-19, from 10-5, and on Monday, Feb. 22, by appointment at AIA's offices in Fort Lee. For an appointment call (201) 944-4800. Check the AIA website for additional information.

The online catalog for the February 23rd auction is on Archives International Auctions' website and can be viewed via Archives International Live bidding platform, either as a Virtual Catalog or downloadable .pdf. To pre-register for the live event internet bidding, you may log on to their website, at www.ArchivesInternational.com. Registering and navigating the website are simple.

Archives International Auctions is finishing the catalog for their April 11th to 13th, 2016 China, U.S., Russia and worldwide banknote, scripophily and coin auction, which will also be held in the firm's Fort Lee offices. Featured will be Part 3 of the Alexander E. Pogrebetsky family archives of rare Chinese and Russian banknotes. Watch the website for more information as spring approaches.

Archives International Auctions is constantly seeking consignments for future auctions and is looking for U.S. and worldwide banknotes, coins, stocks, bonds, stamps, postal history, autographs, historic ephemera and documents to buy outright. To sell or consign one piece or a collection, you may call AIA at (201) 944-4800; or you can send them an e-mail to info@archivesinternational.com.

You may also write to Archives International Auctions, at 1580 Lemoine Ave., Suite #7, Fort Lee, NJ 07024 U.S.A.. To learn more about Archives International Auctions and the auctions planned for Tuesday, Feb. 23rd, and April 11th-13th, log on to www.ArchivesInternational.com.

Dr. Robert Schwartz
Archives International Auctions LLC
201-944-4800
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases.

© 1995-2016 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.