

In search of a real Czech experience in Prague

Discovering a city through the eyes of a local is priceless. Be able to live the authentic Prague life with its people.

PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC, April 21, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- When it comes to absorbing the full effect of a foreign city's culture, history, and excitement, many travelers turn to local guides and tour companies to help maximize the enjoyment of the journey. This sentiment is shared by travelers around the globe, and in Prague, the only company worth using is Guidilo.

Born from the combination of the words "guide" and local", Guidilo is staffed with local natives whose excitement and energy for the breathtaking city knows no bounds. The company specializes in unique, personal tours that shy away from the touristic, crowded attractions, and instead focus on all the hidden details that make the city so wonderful to experience. There are similar companies operating worldwide but Guidilo is the first of this kind in the Czech Republic.

"The experience is designed to feel as if you're experiencing the city alongside a new friend, instead of a stiff tour guide," Tereza Vítková says, co-founder at Guidilo. "Hanging out with locals is always the best way to explore any destination. No guidebook can give you all the insider tips and hidden gems that the people living there every day can offer. From our years of travelling, we've learned that a good guide can make the difference between an unpleasant walk and a wonderful lifelong memory."

Globalism has opened up the world and made travel accessible and affordable. Tourism has seen a boom and many businesses have gotten their foot in the door and shaped our expectations for what traveling looks like. However Guidilo has proven that it's still possible to improve and change the way we travel. Tourists traveling to the Czech Republic now have a wider spectrum of experiences to choose from to make their trip more special and authentic.

Those interested in booking a visit to Prague with Guidilo should visit their website at <http://www.guidilo.com>. Every tour guide passes a thorough background check, has a serious passion for the city they call home, and loves meeting the individual needs of every traveler they encounter.
