The Global carpet tiles market is growing at a slow pace. There is less awareness about the product among consumers across segments, except for corporate segment. The growth in market size has not been able to pick up beyond 6% CAGR in most regions and segments.

The growth rate is expected to decline slightly in the forecast period 2016-2021. This is expected as a result of slowing economic growth in China, the second largest economy, along with decline in growth of the high-income countries of North America and Europe post 2017. The global market is expected to be driven by Asia-Pacific and Middle East region.

As per the recently published research report “Global Carpet Tiles Market: Trends, Opportunities and Forecasts (2016-2021) - (By Value, By Region-North America, Europe, APAC, Middle East, ROW; By Segment - Corporate, Hospitality, Institutional; By Country-USA, UK, Germany, Japan, India, China, UAE; Key Players, Recommendations)” by Researcher, the market is dominated by key global players like Interface, Shaw Contract Group, Dixie Group, Milliken and Tarkett, etc.
