ABOUT THE BAND: Formed in the South Bay in 2011, Frankly Speaking Band set out to put their own translation on the "standards" and make them as enjoyable to listen as dance to. A mixed-genre professional performance band, they focus their energy on turning both current and vintage rock classics upside down. Bringing a blend of musical freedom and uniqueness to each and every performance, audiences enjoy stylistic influences from Zappa, Santana and Knopfler. An audible fusion, where metal meets classical and prog-rock combines with the blues, you will know all the tunes as they are delivered with high-energy, musical prowess and passion.
