

Desuar Spa Helps Californian Men Feel Sexy with Boyzilian Wax Service

While Most Spas only offer Brazilian waxing for women only, Desuar Spa Help Californian Men Feel Sexy too, with Boyzilian Wax Service.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 17, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Everyone knows by now that many spas across the country offer waxing that helps girls have nice smooth legs, hairless arms, and more. The so called Brazilian or Bikini Wax, offered to women at select spas across the U.S, helps keep women's bikini area soft and smooth, and avoid the hassle of shaving their bikini area. Men who merely want their backs waxed have to look long and hard for a select spa that will if ever--do it for them. And, if a man wants a wax in his bikini area too? Forget it! There just aren't any easy options to find a place that caters to the needs for such a man--until now.

Unlike most spas, I'm not afraid to touch or see a man's body, and neither are my other therapists.”

Regarding servicing men with a bikini wax, or 'Boykini' Brazilian or 'Boyzilian' at Desuar Spa, owner Deisy Suarez states, "Unlike most spas, I'm not afraid to touch or see a man's body, and neither are my other therapists. Why should someone be deprived of getting a great massage or waxed where they want, just because they are a man? That's not fair. We don't discriminate against men here." Deisy adds, "While we are very unconventional, and some of our menu and ads are very flirty, we are also very professional. We don't offer sexual services. We only offer therapeutic and beauty treatments. My step-son works full time here at the front desk, and my husband even works here part time!" Daring, unique, and one of a kind, Desuar Spa is very proud to serve men and women all across Los Angeles at their downtown location, giving the all star treatment that only Hollywood--and only Desuar Spa can provide.
