Borenstein Group, Top Washington DC Branding Agency, Donates 10,000 Meals to Houston Food Banks in Support of Children Affected by Hurricane Harvey

WASHINGTON , DC, UNITED STATES, September 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 2017 –Borenstein Group, digital branding agency, today announced it has donated 10,000 nutritious meals to children in Houston through The Outreach Program, a national charity that helps combat food insecurity by facilitating delivery of pre-packaged resilient food to communities in need in the U.S and abroad. The meals are expected to arrive during the week of September 10th, 2017 to a local Food Bank.

"At this time of utter devastation in Texas, having sufficient supply of nutritious food for impoverished children who have lost so much, is a small but meaningful step toward combating food insecurity and helping support the people that need it most in Houston and the surrounding affected communities. While recovery may take a long time, this was something we felt we could do immediately," said Mr. Gal Borenstein, Borenstein Group's Founder & CEO.
