

The Carl V. Bini Memorial Fund Hosts Event To Benefit Capece Family:

100% of Proceeds To Benefit Staten Island Child With Debilitating Disease

STATEN ISLAND, NY, UNITED STATES, September 27, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Carl V. Bini Memorial Fund, Staten Island-based non profit, will host a family fun day on Sunday, October 1st from noon-6pm at Mount Loretto to raise funds to help Anthony Capece, a Staten Island child battling the life threatening disease MELAS. 100% of net proceeds raised will be given to the family to offset medical and living expenses.

MELAS, an abbreviation for Mitochondrial Encephalopathy, Lactic Acidosis, and Stroke-Like Episodes, is a rare genetic disorder which results in stroke and uncontrollable seizures. Five-year-old New Dorp resident Anthony Capece has been afflicted with this disease since birth.

"Our mission is to help the community in a time of need," said Massimo DiDonna, President and Chairman of The Carl V. Bini Memorial Fund. "The Capece family is facing a tremendously difficult situation and we're counting on the support of fellow Staten Islanders to come out Sunday and show their support."
