RAIPUR, INDIA, October 26, 2017
/EINPresswire.com/ --

Report Sellers has added a new market research report "Wearable Health Sensors Market- Forecasts from 2017 to 2022" to its offerings. The report is an in-depth market study providing accurate market insights including the latest trends, forecast, competitive insights, etc.

Wearable Health Sensor Market Research Report

According to the report, the wearable health sensor market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 63.61% over the projected period to reach US$1,955 million by 2022, from US$170.252 million in 2017. Rising global aging population and growing cases of chronic diseases such as cancer, diabetes and cardiovascular disease across the globe are some of the key drivers of global wearable health sensor market, as these sensors provide continuous real-time feeds of vital signs of the patient and also alert the medical center in case of any anomalies, as per the report.

Moreover, technological advancements in the industry coupled with declining prices of sensors are further propelling the demand of these sensors. Others additional growth factors include miniaturization of physiological sensors, improvement in battery sizes, and advancements with respect to the sensor accuracy.

Competitive Insights: The global market for wearable health sensor is highly fragmented with the presence of several large and small vendors. The large vendors owing to their brand image get an advantages position in the market.

The major players discussed in the report include Panasonic Corporation, NXP Semiconductors, Analog Devices, Infineon Technologies, Samsung, Sony, and Motorola among others.
