Description

WiseGuyReports.Com adds" Global Primary Food Processing Machinery (PFPM) Market 2017-2021 "Research To Its Database.

Food processing involves combining raw food ingredients to produce marketable food products. Most food products that are available to consumers go through primary processing, which means beginning at the point of origin to transporting, sorting, and cleaning of the raw food. Some food products then go through secondary processing in which primary food products are converted into other types of edibles. For instance, wheat can be converted from the original grain to food products like breads, flour, and cakes. Processed food like meat and fresh food like fruits and vegetables represent 20% of the total food processing done in Australia in 2016. The global primary food processing machinery (PFPM) market is segmented into various markets like meat and poultry, fruits and vegetables, grains and seeds, and others.
