Since the foundation of Sitters4Critters, the company has seen steady growth and has reached a number of milestones, which they hope to build on during their 5 year anniversary this April. After landing their first customer in the spring of 2013, they have grown their social audience to over 1,000 fans on Facebook. As business advanced, so too did the service. Celebrating our 5 years anniversary in April the company has some exciting initiatives. This includes the introduction of giving back to their community and current clientele. The company has started offering new clients a 6 night, 7 days vacation at a resort! (Company asking 6 month commitment and certain rules apply).

Due to high demand, they have limited mid-day dog walking spots and releasing more evening and weekend pet sitting visits! The demand has enabled Sitters4Critters, to hire more employees so their service surrounding Philadelphia expands and is more reliable and retainable. New and existing clients should share with friends on these special offers, as the holiday season and availability will quickly come to a close December 31. Come celebrate with us as the best dog walker around Philly. To hear more about their services, or to request a sitter for the next vacation or night out in the city, visit the website today.
