

New Social Media Platform SimplyWishes.com Ups the Ante on the Giving Economy

New social media website asks, "Why can't a community of givers help each other realize their dreams?"

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, USA, January 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- San Jose, CA - January 24, 2018 - It really is very simple. Make a wish and post it. Grant a wish and make someone happy. Sounds like streamlined kindness, right?

That's the vision of a new altruistic website called SimplyWishes.com. Launched to help make people's dreams a reality in December of 2018, the new social media app has picked up steam. With a philosophy that there's no dream too big or too small to share, wishes can be fulfilled through direct gift-giving, trading, or funding on the site. Offering to make one wonder why supporting each other has gotten lost in the mix, the site could be considered the new digital touchstone of neighborliness. Even when the "neighbors" have never met and are separated by any number of miles.

So how does it work? Quite simply put, the service is for people who believe in the art of giving. To do that with practicality, people can literally make a wish and post it on the site. Then someone with the where-with-all can grant that wish. Or, at the very least, they can encourage the wisher and share stories that offer an upbeat approach to the need. Adding to the wholeheartedness, great news can be shared on the platform's forum as well.

But, the goodwill doesn't stop there. Once a wish is posted on SimplyWishes.com, there's a platform feature that allows the users to share the post on other social media platforms. Think of it as a wish rocketing around the world thanks to the power of the digital age.

Iris Bloomer, Executive Vice President of SimplyWishes.com said, "The SimplyWishes app offers ways for users to interact through direct messaging, following each other, leaving 'loves' and comments, and posting on the Forum and Happy Stories pages. It's a direct way to utilize an opportunity to show people you care. At the same time, it provides a certain amount of privacy so everyone can feel safe and engaged."
