

Armour Communications announces the release of Armour Desktop for Windows 10

Government certified secure mobile communications app continues to lead market with expanded functionality

LONDON, UK, February 15, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Armour Communications, a leading provider of specialist, secure communications solutions, has today announced the general availability of Armour Desktop. Armour Desktop extends the secure mobile communications capabilities of Armour Mobile via a Windows 10 softphone and is fully interoperable with Armour Mobile.

David Holman, a director of Armour Communications said: “At Armour we are committed to extending our range of secure communications solutions that enable trusted colleagues to collaborate safe in the knowledge that their mobile conversations and associated metadata is secure. Our new Armour Desktop which runs on Windows 10 enables staff both inside and outside of the organisation to communicate within a secure and private environment, while taking advantage of the reduced costs and increased flexibility of Voice over IP communications.”
