

MLG Blockchain and Blockchain India Form Strategic Partnership

TORONTO, ONT., CANADA, May 15, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MLG Blockchain, a global blockchain development and consulting firm, has forged a strategic partnership with Blockchain India. Through this strategic partnership, MLG Blockchain will leverage Blockchain India's blockchain network to support community development initiatives across India.

Blockchain India promotes education and connects professionals to foster cutting-edge technology projects. This partnership will allow both companies to organize meetups, workshops, hackathons, and technical training.

"Partnering with MLG will help bring more value to the Indian blockchain community. The two companies intend to empower the community and grow the blockchain ecosystem together," commented Aman Gupta, Blockchain India's founder and CEO.

The blockchain community is rapidly increasing in India, and Blockchain India has become a key player in the sphere. We look forward to working with them on projects and events across the country.”

Michael Gord

MLG and Blockchain India also intend to leverage their expertise in marketing, tech development and consultancy services for local blockchain companies.
