

Judge Kathleen Quigley Elected to the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges Board of Directors

The NCJFCJ has elected Kathleen Quigley, presiding juvenile court judge, Pima County Superior Court, Tucson, Ariz., to the NCJFCJ Board of Directors.

TUCSON, AZ, USA, September 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- (Tucson, Ariz.) – The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges \(NCJFCJ\) has elected Kathleen Quigley, presiding juvenile court judge, Pima County Superior Court, Tucson, Ariz., to the NCJFCJ Board of Directors.

“The leadership Judge Quigley has demonstrated in her state's Model Court to improve the lives of children and families in both dependency and juvenile cases is a national example of judicial decision making and best practice,” said Judge John J. Romero, Jr., NCJFCJ president. “I am excited to include her breadth of knowledge and expertise to the NCJFCJ Board of Directors.”

Judge Quigley was appointed to the Pima County Juvenile Court Bench as the hearing officer/judge pro tem in 2003. In 2009, she was appointed to Pima County juvenile court commissioner, followed by an appointment to the Pima County Superior Court bench in 2012. She continues to serve on the juvenile bench.

On June 30, 2014, she was appointed to presiding judge of Pima County Superior Court, Juvenile.

“

The leadership Judge Quigley has demonstrated in her state's Model Court to improve the lives of children and families is a national example of judicial decision making and best practice.”

Judge John J. Romero, Jr.

Prior to her appointment to the bench, Judge Quigley worked as a prosecutor and trial attorney at the Pima County Attorney's Office. She has volunteered to serve on many community, professional and court related committees including being a longtime member of the NCJFCJ and serves on the NCJFCJ military committee.

“Judge Quigley has long been a leader in improving our state's juvenile courts,” said Arizona Chief Justice Scott Bales. “I am pleased she will be able to contribute her knowledge and experience to efforts at the national level by serving on the NCJFCJ Board of Directors.”

The Pima County Superior Court, under the leadership of Judge Quigley, is one of the nation's NCJFCJ Mentor Child Abuse and Neglect Model Courts, recognized for its efforts to improve outcomes for abused and neglected children, juvenile offenders, and their families.

Judge Quigley is a graduate of the University of Arizona Law School.

About the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ): Founded in 1937, the Reno, Nev.-based National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, is the nation's oldest judicial membership organization and focused on improving the effectiveness of our nation's juvenile and family courts. A leader in continuing education opportunities, research, and policy development in the field of juvenile and family justice, the 2,000-member organization is unique in providing practice-based resources to jurisdictions and communities nationwide.

Chrisie Yabu
KPS3
775-686-7437
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2018 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.