

Church of Scientology Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month in Downtown Clearwater

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, October 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On October 13, the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization and the humanitarian initiatives it supports are putting on a party in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month at the Osceola Courtyard on the corner of Drew St. and Fort Harrison Ave. The festivities go from 4:00-10:30pm with food and family friendly activities.

“Clearwater has a large Hispanic Community,” said Paola Rodriguez, one of the event’s organizers. “We believe that it is important to celebrate their history with them and have a lot of fun while doing it. We have done this for several years and everyone has a great time.”

The event features activities and games including a bouncy house, a gamut of carnival games, live Hispanic music as well as plenty of food.

While having a great time, guests can learn about the Church of Scientology supported humanitarian programs: The Way to Happiness Association Tampa Bay, Foundation for a Drug-Free World, United for Human Rights, the Citizen’s Commission on Human Rights Florida and the Scientology Volunteer Ministers.
