

VISIT CALISTOGA LAUNCHES RESTAURANT WEEK PROMOTION JANUARY 20-27

Program Part of Statewide California Restaurant Month Promoting California's Culinary Experiences

CALISTOGA, CA, UNITED STATES, December 27, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- At the top of the Napa Valley, 11 businesses will celebrate Calistoga Restaurant Week January 20-27, announced Troy Campbell, executive director of the Calistoga Chamber of Commerce.

"Calistoga Restaurant Week is an incredible opportunity to take advantage of some of the most authentic culinary experiences in our destination, not available at any other time of the year," Campbell noted. "January is also a great time to get hotel deals and experience the diversity of what our destination offers, from hiking the Oat Hill Mine Trail, to spending the afternoon enjoying a wine country picnic at Old Faithful Geyser of California, to a soak in a hot springs mineral pool."

Here's how it works. Stop in to any of the participating restaurants during January 20-27 and request the Restaurant Week menu. Prix fixe menus include two-course lunches priced at $20, and three-course dinners priced at $36 and $46, dependent upon the restaurants visited. For more information and a list of participating restaurants, visit www.CalistogaRestaurantWeek.com.

"California's ever-evolving food culture and innovative culinary offerings makes it the perfect destination during our ninth annual Calistoga Restaurant Month," said Visit California President and CEO Caroline Beteta. "Communities across the state will showcase their dining highlights, serving up the best dishes and celebrations from Mendocino to San Diego."

Now in its ninth year, California Restaurant Month drives business for local restaurants and entices out-of-state travelers to visit California. For more information about California Restaurant Month, visit www.DineinCa.com.
