

The Premiere of The Documentary Film BAND VS BRAND to Screen at The Hall of Heavy Metal History Gala

Hosted by Metal Monarch Eddie Trunk, Advance Tickets are Available Online and Admission to the Screening is Open to the General Public

ANAHEIM, CA, UNITED STATES, January 9, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The premiere of BAND VS BRAND, a feature-length documentary film directed by Bob Nalbandian (Director of the Inside Metal series) will make its screening debut on Wednesday, January 23, 2019 at the Marriott Delta Garden Grove just prior to the annual The Hall of Heavy Metal History Gala.

The documentary focuses on the current state of the music business and on how "the brand" of a rock group these days has more power than the band members themselves. Tickets for the awards gala are $30 each with the movie premiere open to the general public, free of charge.

David Ellefson of the Grammy Award-winning band Megadeth is one of the many musicians featured in the film BAND VS BRAND.

We are honored that Pat Gesualdo, Founder and CEO of the Hall of Heavy Metal History, invited us to do the premiere screening for BAND VS BRAND at the Metal Hall of Fame and Awards.”
