"Artists of all abilities will love this rare opportunity to meet and paint with the park's resident artist for July, Alice Leese, on the edge of Kīlauea Volcano.
Leese, a Texas cattle rancher whose dramatic oil paintings and other mediums capture the colorful west, will provide one workshop during her residency. Limited to 12 people, attendees will receive a postcard-sized blank canvas but must bring their own paints and a small travel easel. Cost is $75,( Unless you enter and win this drawing... then it's FREE) and includes lunch at Volcano House". Sponsored by the National Parks Arts Foundation, Friends of Hawai'i Volcanoes
